Methods of Instruction

- Lecture/Discussion
- Distance Learning

Lecture:

1. The instructor will lecture on the theories associated with the plight of the developing world while students take notes and ask and answer questions.

Distance Learning

1. Instructor will provide students with text and audio-visual learning materials (e.g., videos, PowerPoint, lecture notes) supported by textbook chapters on state-society relations. Students will need to use this material to effectively participate in discussions that the instructor will monitor to provide clarification and correction when needed.

Typical Out of Class Assignments Reading Assignments

1. Read a current event article concerning politics in the developing world and outline the argument. 2. Read chapter in the textbook on culture and ideologies and identify the key terms.

Writing, Problem Solving or Performance

1. Choose a current event article from a local or alternative newspaper/periodical concerning politics in the developing world, analyze in a three page formal paper your chosen article from the perspectives of the readings covered in our textbook. By next Friday post your paper to the discussion board. By the following Friday, you will need to post two one-page papers critiquing both positively and negatively two of the papers posted by your colleagues. Graded on basis of students demonstrating ability to apply learned concepts and completeness of analysis. 2. Write an essay in response to the video on Mexico's civil society. Graded on rubric outlining state-society relations provided to students.
